

PROGRESS MONITORING MANAGEMENT UNIT (PMMU)

VACANCIES

Applications are invited from suitably qualified officers in Grade II/III of Sri Lanka Administrative Service and Sri Lanka Planning Service for posts at the PMMU, Ministry of National Policy and Economic Affairs. The proposed Programme Management Unit headed by the Head of Policy Development Office / PMO will include few consultants of McKinsey & Company, USA and work towards achieving the objectives of integrated and accelerated economic development across the country to a vibrant and a sustainable social market economy. Therefore the prospective candidates should have the relevant exposure and capacity to work with high level professionals in order to achieve the ultimate goals of the project. Ability to identify key roles and functions in transforming economies, analytical and thinking skills, interpersonal and communication skills, project management and leadership skills are desired qualifications.

Areas of Work

Number of Vacancies

1) Research	02
2) Economic Modelling	02
3) Communications	01

Academic/Professional Qualifications

- i) Should possess a Bachelor's Degree from a recognized university in the relevant field, with
- ii) Postgraduate qualification (Master's degree)

Experience

Minimum 8 years of experience in the service.

Method of Recruitment

Officers in the aforesaid services will be appointed on the basis of secondment to the relevant post for a period of three years.

Method of Selection

Only shortlisted applicants will be called for an interview.

Interested Officers may send their CVs on or before 31.12.2016 to the Head, Policy Development Office, Prime Minister's Office, No. 58, Sir Ernest De Silva Mawatha, Colombo 07 or by email to - pdo@pmoffice.gov.lk

Canvassing in any form will be a disqualification.

Head

Policy Development Office

Prime Minister's Office

No. 58, Sir Ernest De Silva Mawatha,

Colombo 07,

Sri Lanka.